The New England Flower Show has been welcoming spring to Boston for over 130 years. As one of Boston's most endearing traditions, the Flower Show invites visitors to leave winter behind, if only for a few hours, and lose themselves in the brilliant color and warmth of the show. Enjoy many landscaped displays conveying this year's theme, "Rhapsody in Green", and proving that "being green" isn't that tough! With a few tips and tweaks, we can all enjoy the eco-friendly, colorful side of responsible gardening.

Next, we'll depart for the JFK Library to learn more about the "The Art of the White House Dinner". Elegant and uplifting entertaining was a hallmark of the Kennedy presidency and this exhibit portrays Jacqueline Kennedy's distinctive and innovative approach to entertaining in the White House using the collections of the John F. Kennedy Presidential Library and Museum. The exhibit also features copies of remarks made at dinners by President Kennedy with his own handwritten notes, examples of table settings used at dinners in the Kennedy White House and Mrs. Kennedy's handwritten memos and letters regarding entertainment, guest lists and menus, illustrating her personal involvement and attention to detail in planning the events.

Your luxury motorcoach is VCR-and restroom-equipped. En route, your Plymouth Travel Tour Director will serve a drink and snacks. Your tour includes a boxed lunch and allows plenty of time to enjoy the show and shopping at the Marketplace before going to the JFK Library. On the way home, enjoy a wine and cheese party and special fun.
