

Québec City

Holiday

December 11-13, 2009

Step back into the old-world charm of Québec City as its streets, shops and restaurants celebrate the Holiday Season. Everywhere, sparkling Christmas trees, nativity scenes, special activities, and music will delight strollers and warm hearts. This magical Christmas tour is back by popular demand and one not to be missed!

Travel with Meredith Village Savings Bank

You ask. We listen. Together we solve.

Listen to storytellers of old, marvel at a live nativity scene beneath a blanket of snow, thrill to the sound of heavenly choirs, and follow the trail of stars through Québec City's oldest neighborhoods where hundreds of Christmas trees cast their fairytale light...

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 11

Depart from Meredith and Plymouth (other departures to be advised) for a magical, old-fashioned holiday tour. Join your Meredith Village Savings Bank representatives and your Plymouth Travel Tour Director onboard your luxury motorcoach which is DVD and restroom equipped. Stops will be made for rest breaks and lunch along the way.

This afternoon, check into Le Chateau Frontenac, situated on top of the Cap Diamant Cliffs in the heart of the old walled-in city and overlooking the St. Lawrence River. A magnificent castle-like structure with copper turrets and stone towers, Le Château Frontenac is over 100 years old and is the landmark of Québec City. Offering impeccable appointments, superior service and distinctive charm, this stately hotel stands above historic Old Québec, a United Nations World Heritage Site. Your two-night stay at the Château is guaranteed to be memorable with stunning views, prize-winning French cuisine, the Dufferin Terrace Lounge, guided hotel tours, a fully-equipped fitness center and an indoor pool. Its central location is a minute's stroll from nightlife, quaint shops and great restaurants.

The wide range of quality restaurants has given Québec City a reputation that goes well beyond its borders. Tonight, dine on your own at one of hundreds of restaurants in the Old City serving dishes from over 25 countries. Admirers of history will be charmed by restaurants housed in 18th and 19th century homes... or take a seat at one of the many bistros and cafes. From plain to fancy—this is your chance to savor Québec's hospitality.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 12

After an included breakfast, your local guide will orient you to the old and the new Québec. Sights include the Plains of Abraham, Cape Diamond, Grand Allée, Québec Parliament Building, Place d'Armes, Place Royal and much more. Following the tour, we will return to the hotel.

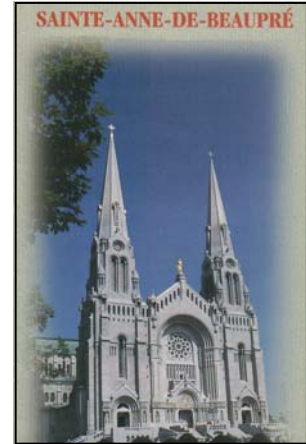

Your afternoon is free and the choices are endless. Enjoy the magic of Christmas throughout the Old City. Take a carriage ride over weathered cobbled stone streets or skate and toboggan from the hotel. Shop for unique gifts throughout the Old Town, including Quartier Petite Champlain, at the foot of the Chateau Frontenac – the oldest shopping district in America. The picturesque and historic streets are lined with cafes, restaurants, neighborhood bistros, numerous museums, art galleries, and clothing, toy, craft and gift shops.

Or

Join your Tour Director for an optional tour (no charge) that begins with a scenic drive along “Old King’s Road” to Sainte Anne De Beupré Basilica. Then, visit Gilles Copper Shop (great for Christmas presents), and stop for hot coffee and bread with maple syrup at Marie’s Bread Ovens (donation required). Admire Montmorency Falls on your return to town. At 272 feet, the Falls are 100 feet higher than Niagara.

This evening, a festive holiday dinner has been especially arranged for us. Your evening includes a reception & a traditional, 4-course Quebec meal. Meals: B & D

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 13

Enjoy a relaxing morning. Take a swim in the pool or soak in the jacuzzi. There is time for last-minute shopping, exploration and lunch before bidding a fond “Au Revoir” to this magical city. Stops will be made for a rest break and fast-food dinner on the way home. Meal: B
