Boston's history stretches beyond the land to the sea with a wealth of maritime history—both past and present. Join us as Boston welcomes crews from all over the world when the Tall Ships return for “Sail Boston 2009”. Boston is an official port of the Tall Ships Atlantic Challenge, a spectacular odyssey of more than 7000 nautical miles in the North Atlantic Ocean following the traditional route taken by sailing ships of a by-gone era. Ships and crew can participate in the whole series or just a part of this exciting competition. Along with Boston, the other host ports of Spain, the Canary Islands, Bermuda, Canada and Ireland have prepared fabulous welcomes for the fleet.

The fun begins when you step aboard your festive Spirit of Boston cruise for an adventure that includes narrated viewing of the Tall Ships, a bountiful buffet luncheon, DJ entertainment and spectacular views of Boston. Set sail with us on a memorable tour filled with international history and beautifully built vessels.

Your luxury motorcoach is DVD and restroom-equipped. En route, your Plymouth Travel Tour Director will serve a drink and snacks.
